Concession stand on site

AUCTIONEER'S NOTE: Jim & Shirley Loden are retiring from 2 different businesses. Their first business was a retail concession business where they traveled all over and sold products at state fairs. Their second business grew faster than expected. They started out refurbishing and/or repurposing a few antiques to resell here and there. The next thing they knew they were selling vintage tools, toys, glassware, collectibles and so much more. They've decided to slow things down a bit and retire from both of these businesses and start a new chapter in their life.
